Janet Moyer Landscaping Promotes Joseph Barnett
To Installation Supervisor

San Francisco – September 8, 2011 – Janet Moyer Landscaping (JML), a full service landscaping company in San Francisco devoted to addressing the unique challenges of urban gardens' constraints, announced today the promotion of Joseph Barnett to installation supervisor.

Barnett joined JML in 2010 as landscaper, and in his new position he will manage a landscaping team. Prior to JML, he served as a construction crew leader with Habitat for Humanity, Americorps in San Francisco. While there, he managed and taught a diverse group of volunteers how to apply various construction and carpentry tasks, conducted daily site safety orientations and performed residential construction and carpentry skills. Earlier he was a landscaper with Little Rock Land Design in Little Rock, AR where he designed and implemented landscape projects.

Barnett is a graduate of the University of Arkansas at Little Rock with a bachelor of arts degree in English and Philosophy. He is a resident of San Francisco.

About Janet Moyer Landscaping

Founded in 1990, Janet Moyer Landscaping is an award-winning full service landscaping company based in San Francisco, CA. It has designed and installed more than 460 unique and customized gardens in San Francisco's varied terrain. The company specializes in the creation of custom residential landscapes that address the unique challenges posed by San Francisco's climate, varied terrain and architectural constraints. Owned and managed by Janet Moyer and Michael Hofman, JML applies sustainable practices to its residential landscape design, installation and maintenance services. In 2010, JML received recognition for its work in design and installing the first "teaching garden" for children at a public library in San Francisco.
